

Admiralty Club New Resident Application

Admiralty Club Rule:

The Association will conduct background checks of all prospective owners and renters. The expense of the background check and associated office work will be offset by a $100, non-refundable fee to be paid by the prospective owner or renter for each individual over the age of 18. The Association will no longer accept background checks conducted by others, including the current unit owner. Photocopy of valid current driver's license and Social Security Card for each person over age 16 to be included with return of this completed application form together with a check made payable to Admiralty Club and drawn on an American bank for the appropriate amount.
